THIS LETTER IS A TO A CONFIDENTIAL WARNING AND IS IN NO WAY ADMISSIBLE IN ANY LEGAL PROCEEDING FOR ANY PURPOSE.

Mr Christensen,

I approach you in my capacity as an authorised legal representative of [REDACTED]. My client has informed me the details of this case including the misuse of confidential information, including the email address of one of our models , [REDACTED]. As her email address is classified as confidential information any unsolicited communications with her will be considered an invasion of privacy. Furthermore there is the matter of copyright infringement which occurred when you used our images in your template without any express, tacit or implied permission.

1. MISUSE OF CONFIDENTIAL INFORMATION

The facts in this matter are relatively simple. [REDACTED] goes through enormous amounts of effort to keep the personal information of our models as confidential as possible to the public. By contacting [REDACTED] without our authorisation it would constitute a misuse of personal information as it was an unsolicited communication. Furthermore by obtaining and publishing [REDACTED] email address on the Internet it may result in a civil lawsuit whereby you may be charged with invasion of privacy.

2. COPYRIGHT INFRINGEMENT

Any unauthorised use of our images will constitute copyright infringement and you may be liable for actual and statutory damages. Even if the use was not commercial in nature permission should still be acquired when using our images.

OUR DEMAND TO SETTLE THIS CONTROVERSY

Should you wish to resolve this claim immediately without facing public litigation, my client hereby demands that all email addresses and names be removed from your website and that you provide affirmation that you will not contact [REDACTED] or any one other of our models again without our permission. Furthermore, he also requests that you provide where you obtained [REDACTED] email address in the first place.
